 - (1) the Seller is entering into this Agreement in reliance on the Buyer’s covenants to pursue the Approval Condition diligently and in good faith;
 - (2) absent satisfaction or waiver of the Approval Condition in accordance with this Agreement, the Buyer and the Seller shall not be obliged to complete the purchase of the Underlying Asset, except to the extent of any liability arising from a Buyer Event of Default or Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure; and

CONFIDENTIAL

C. APPROVAL PROCESS COVENANTS

6. The Buyer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain satisfaction of the Approval Condition on or before the Approval Cut-Off Time.
7. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Buyer shall:
 - (1) promptly take all necessary internal steps to convene the relevant shareholder meeting or procure the relevant written resolutions;
 - (2) not withdraw, postpone, materially amend, qualify, or recommend against the approval proposal, except where required by applicable law or fiduciary duty, and in such case the Buyer shall promptly notify the Seller in writing with reasonable detail;
 - (3) keep the Seller reasonably informed of the status of the approval process; and
 - (4) promptly provide the Seller with Approval Evidence if the Approval Condition is satisfied.
8. The Buyer shall not take any action, or omit to take any action, the principal purpose or reasonably foreseeable effect of which is to frustrate, delay, or prevent satisfaction of the Approval Condition.
9. The Buyer acknowledges that the Seller is entering into this Agreement and may incur exposure, costs and risk in reliance on the Buyer's covenants in this Part.
10. From the date on which the Approval Condition is satisfied until Completion, if the Margin placed with the Seller is less than [ten percent (10%)] of the Current Market Value of the Underlying Asset, the Seller may by written notice require the Buyer to top up the Margin to such level within two(2) Business Days, and failure to do so shall constitute a Buyer Event of Default.

D. MARGIN REQUIREMENTS

11. On the Trade Date, the Buyer shall pay the Initial Margin of USD 112,350 to the Seller, which equals fifteen percent (15%) of the Contract Notional Value.
12. Throughout the term of this Agreement, the Buyer shall maintain Margin in an amount not less than the Maintenance Margin, being ten percent (10%) of the Current Market Value.
13. If at any time the Margin held by the Seller is less than the Maintenance Margin, the Seller may issue a Margin Call requiring the Buyer to post Additional Margin sufficient to restore Margin to the Initial Margin level or such other level specified in the Margin Call.
14. The Buyer shall satisfy any Margin Call by no later than [two (2)] Business Days after receipt of the written notice served by the Seller.
15. Margin constitutes collateral for:
 - (1) the Buyer's obligation to complete the purchase if the Approval Condition is satisfied;
 - (2) actual Losses, fees, costs or amounts recoverable by the Seller following a Buyer Event of Default; and
 - (3) any amounts expressly payable by the Buyer under this Agreement.

CONFIDENTIAL

16. Margin is separate from the Service Fee and shall not be treated as payment of the Service Fee.
17. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, the Seller shall hold Margin in a segregated manner and shall not rehypothecate or otherwise use Margin except as permitted by this Agreement.
18. If Completion occurs, the Seller may apply all Margin then held toward the purchase price and any other amounts due from the Buyer under this Agreement, and shall refund any surplus promptly.
19. If this Agreement terminates because the Approval Condition is not satisfied by the Approval Cut-Off Time, and no Buyer Event of Default nor Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure has occurred, the Seller shall return all Margin then held to the Buyer within five (5) Business Days after the Termination Date.
20. If a Buyer Event of Default or Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure has occurred, the Seller may apply all or part of the Margin against amounts due to the Seller under this Agreement and shall refund any surplus promptly after such application.

E. SERVICE FEE

21. In consideration of the Seller entering into this Agreement, reserving capacity and assuming exposure and related costs during the term of this Agreement, the Buyer shall pay the Seller a non-refundable Service Fee equal to 0.5% of the Contract Notional Value, being USD 3,745 on the Trade Date.
22. The Service Fee is earned in full upon receipt and is non-refundable in all circumstances.

 - (2) the Service Fee is separate from the Margin; and/or
 - (3) the Service Fee shall not be credited against the purchase price unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise in writing.
24. The Buyer acknowledges that the Service Fee represents agreed consideration for the conditional right granted under this Agreement and for the Seller's assumption of inventory, hedging, funding, and opportunity costs, and is not a penalty.

F. SETTLEMENT ON THE TERMINATION DATE

25. If Approval Condition is satisfied. If the Approval Condition is satisfied on or before the Approval Cut-Off Time and the Buyer has delivered Approval Evidence, then:-
 - (1) the Buyer shall be irrevocably obliged to complete the purchase of the Underlying Asset on or before the Termination Date;
 - (2) the Buyer shall pay the balance of the purchase price, being the Contract Notional Value less all Margin (taking into account all Margin Call prior to the date of Completion) then held by the Seller and available for application under this Agreement, in immediately available USD funds no later than [11:00 a.m.] on the Termination Date;

CONFIDENTIAL

- (3) subject to receipt in full of the purchase price and completion of all compliance checks, the Seller shall transfer the Underlying Asset to the Designated Wallet by [5:00 p.m.] on the Termination Date or, if not operationally practicable, by the next Business Day. For the avoidance of doubt, if Seller deems it is operationally impracticable to transfer the Underlying Asset to the Designated Wallet at the time agreed above, the Seller must promptly inform the Buyer in writing with a detailed reason for such impracticability;
 - (4) title to and risk in the Underlying Asset shall pass to the Buyer, free from any encumbrances, upon the first valid broadcast by or on behalf of the Seller of the transfer transaction to the Bitcoin network to the Designated Wallet, provided that where the Buyer has provided an incorrect, incomplete, incompatible or unauthorized wallet address, title and risk shall pass upon such broadcast notwithstanding non-receipt by the Buyer; and
 - (5) the Seller shall have no obligation to transfer any forked asset, airdrop, staking reward or other incidental entitlement unless expressly agreed in writing.
26. If Approval Condition is not satisfied. If the Approval Condition is not satisfied by the Approval Cut-Off Time, and no Buyer Event of Default or Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure has occurred, then:-
- (1) this Agreement shall automatically terminate on the Termination Date without any obligation on either Party to complete the purchase and sale of the Underlying Asset;
 - (2) the Seller shall retain the Service Fee;
 - (3) the Seller shall return all Margin (including all Margin Call prior to the date of Completion) then held in accordance with the Margin Requirements provisions of this Agreement; and
 - (4) neither Party shall have any claim against the other for loss of bargain, replacement value, market movement, expectancy damages or similar damages arising solely from such non-satisfaction of the Approval Condition.
27. If Approval Condition is not satisfied due to Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure. If the Approval Condition is not satisfied by the Approval Cut-Off Time and the Seller reasonably determines that such non-satisfaction resulted from Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure, then the Seller may by written notice:-
- (1) terminate this Agreement;
 - (2) retain the Service Fee;
 - (3) apply all or part of the Margin in accordance with the Margin Requirements provisions of this Agreement; and
 - (4) recover from the Buyer any additional Losses suffered by the Seller, subject to Part K.
28. The Buyer shall notify the Seller in writing promptly upon becoming aware that the Approval Condition has been satisfied, or is unlikely to be satisfied, and in any event no later than the Approval Cut-Off Time.
29. The remedies set out in the provisions of this Agreement dealing with non-satisfaction of the Approval Condition without Buyer Event of Default or Buyer Bad Faith Approval Failure shall be the Seller's sole remedies in respect of such failure of the Approval Condition.

G. WALLET AND SETTLEMENT MECHANICS

CONFIDENTIAL

30. No later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Termination Date, the Buyer shall provide the Seller with the Designated Wallet and such evidence as the Seller may reasonably request to verify ownership, control, whitelisting, chain compatibility, and compliance acceptability.
31. The Seller may refuse to transfer the Underlying Asset to any wallet address that:- (a) is incomplete, invalid, incompatible with the Bitcoin network, or technically defective; (b) has not passed the Seller's compliance and wallet screening procedures; or (c) is not reasonably demonstrated to be controlled by the Buyer or its approved custodian.
32. Any network fees, miner fees, custodial withdrawal fees, banking charges or similar third-party transfer costs shall be borne by Parties in equal parts unless otherwise agreed to be waived.
33. The Seller may postpone settlement for so long as reasonably necessary where a Market Disruption Event exists, provided that the Seller shall notify the Buyer and use commercially reasonable efforts to resume settlement promptly.
34. The Seller shall not be liable for loss arising from the Buyer's provision of an incorrect, incompatible, unauthorized or compromised wallet address, except to the extent caused by the Seller's fraud, willful misconduct or manifest error.

H. CALCULATION AGENT

35. For any purpose requiring determination of BTC market value under this Agreement, the Calculation Agent shall determine such value in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner by reference to [Bloomberg XBT Bitcoin Spot Closing Price], or if such source is unavailable or unreliable, such alternative source or methodology as the Calculation Agent reasonably determines.
36. The Calculation Agent may make all determinations, calculations, adjustments and elections contemplated by this Agreement, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, and any such determination shall be binding absent manifest error.
37. If a Market Disruption Event occurs on or about the Termination Date, the Seller may:- (a) postpone the Termination Date or settlement for up to [five (5)] Business Days; (b) designate an alternative pricing source; (c) require settlement through an approved custodian or alternative settlement process; or (d) if settlement remains commercially impracticable or unlawful, terminate this Agreement and, if the Approval Condition had been satisfied, determine a cash close-out amount in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.
38. Unless expressly agreed, no cash settlement shall apply solely because the Approval Condition is not satisfied.
